His Glory Known”

Second Sunday

Last week was a true blessing and we are looking for this coming Sunday to be the same or even better!

Thirty-nine were present for our assembly last Sunday. We practiced social distancing, with many wearing masks and respecting the health concerns of others present. Brother Jim led us in songs of praise, four of our brothers led us in prayer and brother Phil led us in our Lord’s supper devotional. The one thing that was most evident was the joy of being able to be with our family once again.

This Sunday we will again be meeting at 10:30 AM for worship, while using similar guidelines as last week. And, as last week, members are encouraged to use their best judgement as to whether or not they should attend. This is especially so if someone falls into one of the high-risk categories or has a fear of contracting the virus or spreading it to others. Again, we respect the feeling of all and want to honor those feelings regarding our national health concerns.

Communion supplies remain available and may be picked up at the church office or found in the mailbox near the Ministry Center door. Communion packets may be delivered to those who have a need. Offerings can be given at the Sunday assembly, mailed to PO box 372, or one may use the online giving provided on both our church Facebook page and on our web page, ringgold.church.

New Birth

On Monday evening Jeff Stamm of Ringgold was baptized into Christ! If you would like to send him a card of encouragement his address is 42 Church Street, Ringgold, GA 30736.

Spiritual Thought

Peace, it does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble or hard work. It means to be in the midst of these things and still be calm in your heart.

~Unknown

Now may the Lord of peace Himself continually grant you peace in every circumstance. The Lord be with you all.

~2 Thessalonians 3:16
